

How do I list my items on eBay for Thera?

1. Once you're ready to list your item, use the 'Advanced Sell' form.
2. As you're filling out the details, look out for the charity box just below where you set your price.
3. Use that box to select 'Thera Trust' and the percentage (10%-100%) of your final selling price that you'd like to donate
4. Three weeks after your item sells, PayPal Giving Fund will automatically collect the donation from you.

What is it?

eBay is an online shop, where you can sell your own items, or buy items from other people. Usually these items are second hand, but some can be brand new. eBay have a charity section of their online shop, where you can choose to donate a percentage of the profit from your item sales to the charity of your choice. When your items sell, eBay will donate your chosen percentage directly to Thera Trust and send the rest to your bank account.

Is it safe?

eBay are partnered with PayPal Giving. PayPal Giving is the charity part of the popular money transfer company PayPal. PayPal Giving works with eBay to make sure all the money from donated sales get to the charity it's been donated to. It's very safe and both companies have strict privacy, data protection, and money transfer policies. If you have any concerns, here is eBay's Safety Centre for more information.

Do I have to pay for it?

You might have to pay to list some items and a small fee when it's sold, but this would be taken out of your sale profits rather than paying upfront. The benefit of listing your items is that whatever percentage you choose to donate to Thera Trust, the same percentage will also be deducted from your listing and selling fees. So if you choose to donate 100% of the profits to Thera, your fees will be zero!

Do I have to use eBay?

The advantage of using eBay is that eBay manage the donation for you, working out the percentage you asked them to, and sending it straight to us. They take care of everything for you. If you'd prefer to use a different selling site, you can donate your profits to Thera Trust using this link Thera Trust - Donate now \(cafonline.org\) (remember not to gift aid your donation!). Just remember to state you're selling your items to fundraise in aid of Thera Trust in the item description.
