

Book a doctors appointment if you notice any of these symptoms

Swelling or a lump in testicles

Pain in your testicles

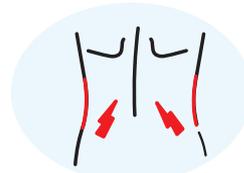

Any change in shape

More fluid in your testicles

Your scrotum feels different

Lower back pain

Your testicles feel firm (less soft)

Pain in lower stomach or groin

Version 1: Information was correct as of 5 October 2022

The health information in these materials relating to testicular cancer awareness is provided by Orchid. References available on request.