Update From Sam

2020 is looking to be another great year for Gig Buddies Edinburgh! We've got more members and volunteers than ever, and we've got loads of exciting events planned.

As always, we will be getting out to lots of gigs, Sneaky Pete's and the Jazz Bar remain favourites for many members. But we also plan to get out to some new things this year, like enabling members to get out to a music festival for the first time!

We can't reveal everything yet, but make sure you follow us on facebook to get all our up to date news.

We will also email all our members any exciting pieces of information.

This newsletter contains all of our current Edinburgh socials until May 2020. I'm sure we will be adding more so be sure to keep an eye out on your emails.

We hope to see you at an event soon!
Sam
